HARLEM'S SUMMER RACING.

Harlem's reopening was an auspicious one, the card being of quality sufficient to gather together some 3000 persons. The track so far from being injured by the rain of the forenoon was greatly benefited. M. Lewis Clark filled his old position as presiding judge and was assisted by J. W. Kelsey and Col. A. W. Hamilton. Richard Dwyer was the starter. Nineteen bookmakers "cut in" and the field books, as formerly, were two in number. The system of bookmaking was the old one, slates bearing the names of the horses and the odds against them. The big pencilers had much rather use the system known at Washington Park, as then the several firms must needs at the opening of the betting post their own odds and this gave a great chance for scalping the prices. Again the "stool system" is the best for persons wishing to play a horse, as whereas with slates a bet of $100 at once cuts the price, the lookouts noticing the use of the rubber. At the new style of bookmaking such transactions are buried by the crowd, and a plunger can get on a great amount of money at the original figure. The "copyist" here finds it hard work to make a living, leaving the money making part of the business to such men as by their superior wits are entitled to the gold. The program, too, was of the old variety. That used at Washington Park with its several leaves being a vastly more convenient thing to handle, as also affording a much larger space for notes invaluable to every handicapper.

A noticeable feature in favor of Harlem as against Washington Park, when footsore speculators are taken into account, is the wood floor of the West Side betting ring instead of the concrete pavement of the other.

The betting on the first race was, according to James O'Leary, "very tame," although the post betting was by fifty per cent. more in favor of the speculator than under the rule of the syndicate. Banks Cregier furnished his usual excellent band.

Daily Racing Form by his bad action delayed the start for the first race, but when the flag fell all were well together except Tom Toher, two lengths back of the bunch and Moroni still further back. Summer Sea made the pace attended by Daily Racing Form. At the turn for home Sidonian worked to the front from third position, and hard ridden to the last eighth there shook off the others and won handily from Daily Racing Form, Millie M. landing third. Moroni ran an excellent race.

Bing Binger, off on the outside quite outran the others to the first turn, and, not headed, won the second race, shaken up at the last sixteenth from Muskalonge, who was always second. First Pinky Potter, then Albert S. and finally Moncreith ran in third position. The others were not within gunshot at any stage.

Fair Deceiver broke quickest, but was soon joined by Amy Wade and Tenole. The latter, soon after entering the straight, took command and won somewhat easily, with Amy Wade second and Ella Penzance third. Lone Princess might have won, but Kitley, in trying to get through next the rails, was so penned in at the eighth post that the owner played luckily not to have his filly ruined.

Spirituelle, a 1 to 7 shot, took all the interest out of the fourth race, the betting being listless in the extreme. The favorite was ridden the first furlong to get away from Boney Boy, who kept at her so persistently throughout that he got close up within a few strides of the wire, giving Max Blumenthal, who had $650 on against $100, the cold shivers. Burns, however, only had to let go Spirituelle's head for her to go and win. Cheval d'Or was easily first of the others.

Dave Waldo, the horse of phenomenal speed, dodged away from the post in the lead, Gold Fox at first outrunning Mary Black. The 500 to 1 shots in the race had given Starter Dwyer much trouble but as soon as the flag fell they began to back up and after a three furlong's run were badly strung out and not within hailing distance. At the far turn Mary Black had got past Gold Fox, and turning for home on the outside, Wishard's great sprinter was keeping steadily at her work with her little jockey sitting perfectly still. Even as near home as the draw gate it looked as if Dave Waldo would win, but the stealthy action of the rival tagging him, fretted the best son of Sayre and he began to give it up. Vandusen hustled him in vain and Mary Black at the last 100 yards said "Good bye Dave," and like the red fox stealing along the fence, was first past the post. Gold Fox was a bad third—others beaten away off.

Now came the best betting race of the day, Fervor, carrying five pounds over and T. Burns, being made an even money favorite, while Traverser, despite Seaton, was heavily backed, and the "smart ones" trusting to Eugenia Wickes and Eddie Burke. Traverser managed to run fast enough to the first turn to keep the small stable boy from getting killed, the colt shoving through on the rail in a mix-up. Eugenia Wickes at once joined him, and the pair raced up the back stretch like a double team. Two lengths behind at the quarter ran Eddie Burke and Fervor paired, but gradually they dropped back and at the upper turn Fervor third, four lengths behind the leaders was two lengths better than Eddie Burke. Storm Queen was never in it. At the middle of the straight Burns hurried along the favorite. Traverser and Eugenia Wickes were crying: "Move up the judges stand," and Fervor easily passed them, when from behind with a strong rush, even though his head was bobbing, came Eddie Burke and hard held he passed the wire in the lead. Eugenia Wickes finished third. Eddie Burke seems to like weight off. Compare his last performance at Washington Park, when he started at 1 to 2, with his race yesterday.

The finish of the day's racing was a three-fourths dash for which Abuse was a pronounced favorite. He never won a race as easily as did he this, getting away in the lead and pulling for his head through the home stretch. Tartarian, second nearly all the way, had a hard time to get second money away from Afamada.

Eugene Leigh instead of shipping his horses to Saratoga has the entire lot at Hawthorne where they are to "rest up" indefinitely. Leigh had the car all ready to ship, but changed his mind. "I can win some races around here," he said.

The Washington Park meeting is said to have cleared $100,000.

It was rumored that John Brenock had sent word to Ed Corrigan that buy or sell must be the game within twenty-four hours. This ultimatum not accepted, Brenock to bring suit at once against the Chicago Racing Association.

Mike Sweeney, who has charge of the betting ring being ill, his place as caller was acceptably filled by a subaltern.

MR. DALY SEES HAMBURG.

Marcus Daly, one of the most popular horse owners on the American Turf, was at Brighton yesterday. His coming was unheralded, and yet it was not altogether unexpected, for since the message carrying the news of Hamburg's victory in the Realization was received, it was well known that he longed for a view of the colt which had earned such glory for his colors.

Yesterday he saw the son of Hanover for the first time since he has owned him, and he was, as he had every right to be, delighted with his condition.

When he reached the course he found Trainer Lakeland in the paddock, and almost before their greeting was over they started for the stable on the back stretch, where the colt and his mates are quartered, and here they spent the entire afternoon looking over the entire string.

Mr. Daly's coming at this time will greatly facilitate the arrangements for the talked-of race between Hamburg and Ornament. The public interest that has been aroused is sure to win Mr. Daly's approval, for, in all his connection with racing, he has shown a disposition to do everything that will tend to help the public interest in the sport.

His trainer is anxious to win the Brighton Cup, and said yesterday that under no conditions would he consent to a race before that event. As to what he would agree to later on, he was noncommittal, but practically admitted that he would be pleased to run Hamburg under the conditions that have been mentioned.

Ornament's owner and trainer are still anxiously seeking the race; in fact, they announced yesterday that if their offer was not accepted for Hamburg they would meet Ogden in a similar race.—New York Journal.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The highest price paid for a suckling in the Bluegrass for years is the brown Hanover—Workmate colt just sold by Applegate & McMeekin to Charley Patterson for $4,000. The colt is of unusual finish. He has a blaze face, with hind feet white nearly to his hocks, and otherwise he might be pronounced a brown. Mr. M. F. Dwyer was the first to fancy the youngster, which was foaled January 24, when but a few days old. He offered $1,000 for it, but the proposition was refused. Mr. E. J. McDonald, of New York, next offered $2,500, and Charley Patterson raised him $500. Patterson wanted Mr. McMeekin to set a price on the colt, which he would not do for some time, and when he did the plucky turfman readily took him up.

The Brighton Beach track record at a mile and a furlong, made in 1879, stood until Thursday, when Briar Sweet lowered it half a second by running the distance in 1:53 flat. Her race was a remarkably fast one throughout, the first mile being run in 1:39 4-5. The fractional time was 124, 24, 364, 1:39 4-5, 1:53.

Reports from Charley Patterson's string at Louisville are that all are doing well. Hand-spring is going great guns and Mr. Patterson is now satisfied that he will not only stand training, but will probably be better this fall than he ever was. He will be sent east soon to join the others of Mr. Dwyer's stable.

Ocean Prince, chestnut colt, 2, by Hyderabad—Ocean Queen, the property of the Sensation Stable, died from spinal meningitis on Friday, July 15. He had never started in a race, but from private trials was considered a very promising colt.

J. G., Chicago—No place od is on Libertine in the race you speak of.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

The London Sportsman of July 4 says: "We understand that the respected trainer, J. Huggins, will retire from training at the end of the present season, owing to ill-health. The lease of the Hare Park stables expires at the close of the year, and Lord W. Beresford and Mr. Lorillard will have to find other quarters for their horses, but no definite arrangements have, we believe, been made at present with regard to Huggins' successor."

Henry Brandon, Chicago—W. O'B. McDonough of San Francisco was the last purchaser of Ormonde and is his present owner. The horse was at or near Buenos Ayres, South America, at the time of his purchase by McDonough. The price paid was $150,000. The horse was taken from Buenos Ayres to England by steamer, thence to New York by steamer and from there to California by rail.

An Irish trained colt, glorying in the peculiarly Hibernian name Split the Wind, is the latest introduction in the St. Leger quotations. Recently 500 to 40 was quoted about the chestnut son of Belgrave and Landwehr. The colt did not run last year, but this season he won the mile and a half Baldoy Derby by eight lengths, defeating four opponents.

It is stated that the managers of the Epsom, England, meeting contemplate making the Derby of 1900, the entries for which closed on Tuesday, the 19th, worth £10,000 net to the winner; for, as matters stand, the French Derby, to which there is an endowment of £4,000 from the fund, is worth about 50 per cent. more than its English prototype.

Dr. Corboy has sold Violet Parsons to E. Brewster.

Time, 1:24, 24, 36, 48, 1:01, 1:14. Winner—B. c, 4, by Sydney—Christine. Post 17 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; second driving and out to the last ounce; third and fourth doing their best. As the race was run Sidonian was much the best. He was off poorly, interfered with down the back stretch and obliged to run around the field in the stretch. He was a good horse today. Daily Racing Form, after much usage at the post, ran a good race. He raced hard with Summer Sea all the way and finished gamely under punishment. Millie M was coming strong at the end. She met with costly interference on the far turn. The delay at the post hurt Bryan. He has bad legs and they got hot under him. He seemed to prop all through the stretch. Summer Sea showed a sharp turn of speed. Moroni had little or no chance from the start he got.

Overweights—Summer Sea, 2 pounds.

7358 SECOND RACE—1 Mile and 70 Yards. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.
Purse $400; net value to winner $300. $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 2:41, 49, 1:14, 1:40, 1:45. Winner—B. h, 5, by Duke of Montrose—Nottie. Post 3 minutes. Start fair. Won handily; second mildly driven; third eased at the end after early punishment. Bing Binger was in a soft spot. He had speed to loan and was never extended. Caywood could have won further off had he chose. This horse is good now. Muskalonge, off with a flying start, ran his race. He is a peculiar horse to ride, and Vandusen seems to handle him best. Moncreith looked fine, but ran as though he was not himself. This colt has not been good for the last six weeks. Swordsman, from a poor beginning, made up ground throughout. He deserves attention in his class. Pinkey Potter showed some speed, but not much. Scratched—Boanerges, 11; Dunois, 108; Brother Fred, 99; Charley Christy, 113.

7359 THIRD RACE—3 4 Mile. 3-year olds and upward. Selling. Purse $400; net value to winner $400, $10 entrance; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 12, 24, 36, 48, 1:01, 1:14. Winner—Ch. g, 4, by Tenacity—Osceola. Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won mildly driven. The next four were driving hard. Tenole ran a greatly improved race. He had speed enough to keep within striking distance of the leaders all the way and when called upon in the stretch drew clear of his field nicely. This was a more common lot of horses than he has been racing with at Washington Park. Amy Wade was all tangles up when the field broke. She was bumped and jostled about a lot and was perhaps the best. The four behind the winner flashed by the wire on almost even terms. Lone Princess had very bad racing luck. She was repeatedly shut off and was never able to get through. This filly is in winning form. Ella Penzance was right there all the way. She hung on gamely through the stretch. The Tory was bumped into and obliged to pull up at the start. He raced all around the field. Borden must have mud to do his best. Fonclif ran a bad race. Scratched—St. Alfonses D, 105.

Time, 12, 24, 35, 47, 1:00, 1:13. Winner—Ch. f, by Spokane—Narka. Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second whipped out; third and fourth were driving. There was nothing to the race. Spirituelle outclassed the lot away off and won as she pleased. This is certainly a grand filly. Boney Boy got away well on his stride and always held the place safe. He is a nice colt in his place, but cannot beat the Spirituelle kind. Cheval d'Or, outrun on the turn, made a strong bid in the stretch, but weakened from the sixteenth pole home. Keep close watch on Coltness. He is a handsome colt and seems to possess quality. He was a trifle green and ran on the outside all the way. L. Pillott Jr. was coming fast at the end. Scratched—Hardy Pardee, 105; Vim and Vinegar, 97; Oscar's Joy, 95; Galathea, 105; The Crawford, 105; Guess Me, 102; Cambrian, 110; Miss Marks, 100.

Time, 12, 24, 35, 47, 1:00, 1:13. Winner—B. f, 3, by Islington—Songstress. Post 25 minutes. Start straggling. Won easily; second with something left on the end; third eased up. The race was a procession all the way. Mary Black showed what a fast filly she is to win so impressively from a bad beginning. Little Reiff sat still and had a good hold of her head all the way. She does not need any urging and seems to relish the way that the youngster rides her. Dave Waldo got away flying and showed his usual phenomenal speed. He is a very fast horse and also a rank coward. When Mary Black challenged him on the turn he went all to pieces. Gold Fox was coughing in the paddock and was hardly fit to race. Cowen, who rode Michael G., and S. Johnson, who had the mount on Clotilde, both drew indefinite suspensions for incompetency. Tapestry's entry will be refused from now on. She was practically left at the post. Scratched—Eddie Burke, 117; Traverser, 108; Our Gertie, 103.

Winner—R. C. A. by Marmite, 1-Bat, 364, 48, 1:00, 1:13, 1:39.

Time, 12, 24, 36, 48, 1:00, 1:13, 1:39. Winner—Br. c, 4, by Marmion—Battle Belle. Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won well in hand; second and third were driving. It was a fast race. Eddie Burke seemed to relish weight off and ran a corking good race. He is a useful little horse with phenomenal speed. Kitley rode a clever race. He waited long and patiently until the pacemakers tired and made his move at the right time. Fervor had no excuses, was perfectly handled and was simply not good enough to beat Eddie Burke as they were pitched up. Fervor is a good horse and can probably carry his weight too. Eugenia Wickes and Traverser raced each other to pieces the first three-quarters. They set a terrific pace and both suffered from it when the pinch came. Storm Queen was beaten off all the way. Scratched—Dave Waldo, 85. Overweights—Fervor, 5 pounds.

7363 SEVENTH RACE—3-4 Mile. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling. $400 added; net value to winner $350. $10 entrance; $75 to second; $25 to third.

Time, 12, 23, 35, 48, 1:01, 1:13. Winner—B. h, 5, by Plevna—Abukru. Post 10 minutes. Start good. Won handily. The next three were driving. Abuse broke running and had all of his speed. He was at his best and raced those behind him leg-weary the first half. Bloss let him loaf through the stretch. Tartarian had a lot of speed but no where near enough to get close to Abuse. He was stopping badly at the finish. He and Abuse were the cause of the delay at the post. They both refused to break. Afamada, outrun the first part of it, finished strong. Newgatherer was right there and catching those in front of him at every stride. Remember this. He is in winning form now. Cash Day had no speed at all.

What Next was under restraint to the three-quarters and taken very wide into the stretch. He quit when it came to a drive. Giveaway could not raise a gallop. Was beaten a sixteenth.

Winner—Ch. g, by Derwentwater—Busybody.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a hard drive; second and third also driving. Vox is a slow beginner and never got going until the last quarter. The Trimmer closed fast at the end and would have won in another stride. De Blaise hung the last sixteenth. This race should improve him. The winner is a fair colt.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Volante—Maori.
Start good. Won driving. Marito is great with a featherweight up. She was extremely lucky in getting away on the rail. Juno, badly bumped by Marito on the first turn, ran a splendid race. Doggett, outran the first half, came strong at the end. Philip is a cur and of no account except among the cheapest kind. Ella Daly ran well for her. Taranto was bumped out of the race on the first turn and had no chance thereafter.

Scratched—Tinge, 111; Squan, 102; Endeavor, 100; Songster, 90.

Winner—B. c. by Macduff—Kate Pelletier.
Start straggling. Won easily. Gary was easily the best today even though all the others were trying. He is a grand looker and got a poor ride. Ninety Cents got away flying but ran a game race and is of the improving sort. Jean Ingelow, off poorly, took the long route and closed up much ground. Prince of Wales stopped badly after a remarkable burst of burst. Is a fine looker but has had underpinning. Lady Exile had no chance with her ride but ran well. St. Clair got away badly. Miriam Claire is on the small order. She ran better at Sheepshead Bay. Is faint-hearted and only ordinary anyway.

Scratched—Life Guard, 112; Sir Kenneth, 109; Tut Tut, 109; Water Girl, 109; Al Reeves, 109; Fast Black, 109.
Overweights—St. Clair, 2 pounds.

Time, 12 1/2, 23 1/2, 35 1/2, 1:01 1/2.

Winner—Ch. f. by Rayon d'Or—Red Girl.
Start straggling. Won pulled up. Ruby Lips outlasted her field and can beat much better ones. Bonnie Gem beat the gate and today was easily second best. Eileen D was nicely handled and away well. Fairy Dale was nearly left but closed a big gap. Nothing was doing about her. Inspection ran well and Effie Haggerty showed some speed. Miss Gossip, a big tip was practically left. It was a bad lot outside of the winner.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Turco—Sister Louise.
Start good. Won easily. Bannock was easily best and is one of the best horses in training here. Our Johnny ran exceedingly well. He is a very fast horse and ran about the best race of his career. Rondo lacked speed throughout. He sulks, has bad legs and is generally unreliable. Abingdon ran well for him but belongs among lower class ones. Dutch Skater needs work. He had no chance with his rider at the distance. He wants a longer route and fast pacemakers.

*Coupled in betting.
Winner—Br. c. by Sir Dixon—Merry Maiden.
Start good. Won easily. Jack Point was easily the best. He has class, carries weight and is especially good over a distance. Lepida beat the gate and was generally lucky and well ridden. Tendresse, easily second best, was shut off early and closed strong at the end. Exception was very badly handled but ran well. Cosmopolitan, not yet fit, is high in flesh and requires racing. Watch him, especially in mud. Rusher is stale and stopped badly after a nice burst of speed and was pulled up at the end.

Scratched—Captain Sigsbee, 122; Muggins, 119; Federal, 113.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Pontiac—The Squaw.
Start good. Won pulled up. Leedsville, away on the rail and favored throughout, easily outclassed his field. He is a fast horse when everything favors him as today. Deacanter ran his race. He is faint-hearted and beaten when brought to a drive. Free Lance killed himself chasing the winner. Will do better elsewhere when placed right.
Scratched—Rotterdam, 108; Doggett, 108; Ben Ronald, 109; Banquo II, 106; Aurum, 91.
